Dressing the best in France

Since 1844

It's like history has come full circle. Lafont was the natural choice for Coet-MOF to dress the Meilleurs Ouvriers de France as the brand has provided the ultimate in workwear for the last 178 years. Lafont's partnership with the prestigious competition has made it an integral part of the artisan world since it started out. The partnership underlines the brand's core values: passion for a job well done, beautiful handiwork, legacy and first class French craftsmanship. That's why the Meilleurs Ouvriers de France competition and Lafont have joined forces in an exclusive partnership covering 230 trades in 17 professional categories. No matter the trade, MOF craftsmen will be supplied by Lafont for four years.

CEPOVETT

GROUP

A French success story

Since 1948

Supported by a family shareholding group formed by the MD Nicolas Sandjian and CEO Vanneuville, the business has remained independent for three generations in a saturated market and rolled out its external expansion policy. Taking over well-established SMEs in their countries has only elevated the appeal based around three brands: CEPOVETT Safety, Lafont and Ox'Bridge. The various product ranges cover the entire workwear market: PPE, workwear, uniforms, high-tech products and accessories.
